

Vocabulary

Chapters Fifteen, Sixteen, and Seventeen

For each set, tell which of the following relationships applies.

- | | |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------|
| A. a noun and its synonym | E. an adjective and its synonym |
| B. a noun and its antonym | F. an adjective and its antonym |
| C. a verb and its synonym | G. an adverb and its synonym |
| D. a verb and its antonym | H. an adverb and its antonym |

EXAMPLE:

(F) happy is to sad

(D) depart is to arrive

- ___ 1. acrimonious is to bitter
- ___ 2. affluent is to poor
- ___ 3. aggregation is to assemblage
- ___ 4. complacent is to discontent
- ___ 5. connivance is to conspiracy
- ___ 6. convene is to meet
- ___ 7. corroborate is to support
- ___ 8. deliberately is to carelessly
- ___ 9. detractors is to supporters
- ___ 10. devoid is to lacking
- ___ 11. dictum is to pronouncement
- ___ 12. elucidate is to explain
- ___ 13. encumber is to assist
- ___ 14. faintly is to weakly
- ___ 15. gala is to sombre
- ___ 16. litigant is to suer
- ___ 17. ominous is to menacing
- ___ 18. scrutiny is to examination
- ___ 19. smugness is to complacency
- ___ 20. tenet is to principle
- ___ 21. venerable is to honourable