

Vocabulary

Chapters Eighteen, Nineteen, and Twenty

Alphabetise the words in the box. Then find the words (or forms of the words) in these chapters. Use your dictionary to define them as they were used in the story.

chiffarobe	mollified	temerity	circumstantial	offense
expunge	corrupting	contradicting	unmitigated	corroborative
contorted	irrelevant	cynical	leveler	articulate
prejudice	detached	tedious	misdemeanour	candid

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.
- 12.
- 13.
- 14.
- 15.
- 16.
- 17.
- 18.
- 19.
- 20.

You Are There!

Imagine that you are a reporter living in Alabama in 1935. Report about the trial of Tom Robinson. Use a minimum of ten, but preferably all, vocabulary words in your story.